"Joseph Pratte House"

This house located in Ste. Genevieve County, St. Marys Missouri, was built in the year 1826 by Joseph Pratte one of the early settlers in St. Marys and one of the outstanding merchants in his day.

The site on which the house is erected is called "Rozier Landing".

Joseph Pratte died in the year 1847.

The property now belongs to Ben Dofony.

This is a one story and attic, built on sloping ground. First floor at front about ten steps above grade. Rough stone foundation. Log construction covered with weatherboards. Veranda across front.

Information: Mrs. Ida Schaaf.
